

GOINGS ON ABOUT TOWN: CLASSICAL MUSIC

“GALA/NYC”

The cellist Mike Block, a longtime member of Yo-Yo Ma’s Silk Road Ensemble, has begun a new, no-holds-barred concert series at a laid-back venue, the Brooklyn Lyceum; the programs have a jam-band feel, smashing together renowned musicians from many genres. The second of four concerts this month features performances by the multi-instrumentalist Hideaki Aomori (from Sufjan Stevens’s band), the folk musician Hu Jianbing, the Enso Quartet, and the percussionist Shane Shanahan, in addition to members of Streetstyle Contemporary Dance. (227 Fourth Ave., Park Slope. May 14 at 8. brooklynlyceum.com.)

May 14

BROOKLYN LYCEUM
227 4th Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.
718-857-4816
brooklynlyceum.com